

PLACER COUNTY, CALIFORNIA • I-80, EXIT 168

A PRIVATE RIVER VENUE IN THE HIGH SIERRA

A wood-fired sauna, a cold river pool below the deck, a cabin and 168 acres of forest. For offsites, retreats and small celebrations, one group at a time.

◇ — WHY HERE — ◇

WHAT A GROUP GETS HERE

THE WHOLE PLACE

A gated property rented to one group at a time. Nobody lives here and there is no staff, so there are no other guests, no shared beach and no strangers in the sauna.

SAUNA AND RIVER

The group lights the stove, sits in the heat, walks down the steps into the cold river and goes back in. It needs no facilitator and no equipment.

TIME OFFLINE

Don't count on Wi-Fi or phone signal: coverage up here is patchy. For an offsite that is often the point.

EASY TO REACH

A couple of minutes from the I-80 exit, paved from the gate to the cabin. Groceries and hotels are in Truckee, twenty minutes east.

SIX FORMATS THAT FIT THE PLACE

SUMMER • FALL • DAY

TEAM OFFSITE DAY

A working session at the long table, sauna rounds and the river after, lunch off the deck grills. Back on I-80 by evening.

ALL YEAR • OVERNIGHT

LEADERSHIP RETREAT

A small team for 24 hours: bunk rooms and a loft, a fire in the sauna stove, breakfast on the deck, decisions made without Wi-Fi.

SUMMER • FALL

SAUNA AND WELLNESS RETREAT

For yoga, breathwork and sauna hosts: a hot sauna, a cold mountain river, forest and quiet. Several days in a row, up to 15 people.

SUMMER • FALL

ELOPEMENTS AND MICRO-WEDDINGS

Vows on the river deck among granite and pines, with the closest people only, up to 15. Bigger weddings: ask us first.

ALL YEAR

PRIVATE CELEBRATIONS

Birthdays, bachelor and bachelorette weekends, family reunions, a founders' weekend. The whole place for one group.

WINTER • SMALL GROUPS

SNOW AND SAUNA

Cars stay at the gate. The group walks in over deep snow, lights the stove, rolls in the snow between rounds and grills dinner.

Also by arrangement: trout fishing on the property, dirt bike and quad days on agreed routes, tents and RVs on the land.

THE DAY, HOUR BY HOUR

One way an agency can run a summer team day for a small group. Every block moves.

09:30	ARRIVE	Off I-80 at Exit 168, through the gate, park on the paved pad by the cabin.
10:00	LIGHT THE STOVE	The group lights the sauna together. Coffee on the deck while the stones heat.
10:30	WORK SESSION	At the cabin's long table or in the living room. Patchy phone signal means few interruptions.
12:30	LUNCH	Brought-in catering or the deck grills, at the table above the river.
14:00	HOT, COLD, AGAIN	Sauna rounds and the river pool. Or a trail: Loch Leven Lakes starts a mile from the exit.
16:30	CLOSE	A last round. The group cleans up, locks the cabin and is on the road by half past five.

RIVER SEASON

SWIMMING

From mid-July through October, once spring runoff has passed. Cold snowmelt and a quiet pool; bring life jackets for kids and anyone unsure.

FISHING

Brown and rainbow trout. California trout season runs from late April to mid-November; a license is needed from age 16.

HIKING

Loch Leven Lakes trailhead a mile from the exit; the Pacific Crest Trail at Donner Summit, fifteen minutes east.

FIRE

From late June to October open campfires are banned here and across the Sierra. The sauna stove, the wood stove in the living room and the deck grills still work.

FALL

Cool days, quiet trails, good sauna weather. After the first rains porcini come up in the forest.

THE RIVER IN WINTER

SNOW TUNNEL

◇ — WINTER — ◇

DEEP SNOW, A HOT STOVE

In winter the snow here can reach the roof, and the paths to the doors become trenches and tunnels. The river does not freeze.

GETTING IN

Nobody plows the snow. Cars stay by the road at the gate, and the last two-thirds of a mile is on foot, on snowshoes. On I-80 chain controls start at Kingvale, a few miles east.

ON THE SNOW

Snowshoeing, sauna rounds with a roll in fresh snow or a quick dip in the river, dinner on the grill. Ski areas are 7 to 10 miles away.

WHO IT SUITS

Small groups ready to walk in over snow and run the place themselves: a leadership team, a founders' retreat, a winter birthday, a photo shoot.

NO STAFF ON SITE

Nobody lives here. The group lets itself in, lights the stoves (firewood is stacked), cleans up, takes its trash and locks the cabin.

GROUP SIZE

Up to 15 people. The cabin sleeps 12. Bigger groups: ask us first.

DEPOSIT

Equal to the rent. It holds the date and comes back after the stay; cleaning or repairs, if any, come out of it. The rent is paid three days before arrival.

CANCELLING

Booked more than 14 days ahead: 7 days to cancel and get the deposit back. After that, or when booked 14 days ahead or less, the deposit is not refundable.

WHAT TO BRING

Food, drinks, sheets and towels. Catering can be brought in; there is a kitchen in the cabin and grills on the decks.

FACILITIES

A bathroom inside the cabin. Power from solar panels and a generator. Don't count on Wi-Fi or phone signal.

BIGGER EVENTS

Ticketed or larger events: ask us first, the county may require an event permit. Agencies bring their own event liability cover.

FIRE AND RIVER

No open campfires from late June to October. In spring runoff, May to early July, the river is dangerous and nobody swims.
